NCATE Team Reappraise Program

Representative of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) will be at Eastern in March to reappraise certain aspects of the teacher education program here.

Robert F. Heller, vice president of instruction, said the representative will be Donald Ferguson from State Teachers College, Muncie, Ind. The exact date of the visit, which will last for two days, has not yet been set.

According to Heller, a six-man team representing the NCATE came to Eastern last year to reappraise the teacher education program. At that time the board raised several questions concerning various aspects of Eastern's program.

One of the items the council questioned deals with the mechanics and organization of the teacher education program. Other questions relate to persons outside the field of professional education working in that field and procedures for admittance to teacher education.

A report has been compiled by the university to answer questions and clear up any doubts that may have existed when the council made its original investigation, according to Heller.

The council is under the general supervision of the American Association for Accreditation.

The council consists of representatives of the National Education Association, the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, the Association of Chief Academic Officers, the Association of American Colleges and the School Teachers Association.

ART GALLERY . . .

Paintings, Drawings, Collages, Photographs On Display At EIU

Through the courtesy of the D'Adda Galleries of New York, the works of Angelo Savelli will be on display until March 1 at the Sargent Art Gallery in Booth Library.

The works of Savelli are relief drawings, drawings, lithographs and collages.

According to Carl Shull, director of the Sargent Art Gallery, Savelli's work is interesting because of his various uses of the image (set out and decolored image set in) which involve the use of rope. Shull pointed out that the texture Savelli achieves with cement fresco effect and his unique use of white on white is done with such simplicity that it is different from similar artists. Savelli was born in Pavia, Italy, and studied at the Accademia di Belle Arti in Rome, where he spent the early years of his career with brief stays in Zurich

Martha Van Hook, senior music major from Decatur, competed in Opera Auditions of the Air finals at Chicago's WGN radio station, and will fly to Tulsa this week with her instructor June Johnson for more competition.

Eastern Has Least Fire Loss In 1963

Eastern had the least fire loss in 1963 of the four universities under the Teacher College Board, according to TCB safety engineer Pat Ward.

Figures for 1963 fire losses were released at the Teachers College Board February meeting. The report revealed that Western Illinois University had fire losses amounting to $8,250, which resulted in a cost of $1.84 per student.

Illinois State University was second highest in fire losses, totaling $6,000, or $.904 per student. The fire-loss figure for Northern Illinois University was $300, which came to $.028 per student.

Eastern's losses of $100 or $.026 per student brought the total for the four colleges to $14,650. This total may be compared to the latest national figures (1962) which showed that over $1.5 billion went up in smoke and 11,842 deaths resulted from fire.

Athletic Aid Subject Of Senate Proposals

Senate Letter Suggests Five Proposals To Improve Eastern's Athletic Program

At a meeting of the Student Senate Wednesday, Senate President Bob Genetski read a report drawn up by the Executive Council of the Senate expressing student feeling on aid to athletics.

The report was written in the form of a letter addressed to President Quincy Doudna and signed by Genetski.

The Senate approved that the letter be sent to Doudna.

According to Genetski, in the letter, the students have long felt a need for an improvement of athletics "to bring recognition to the name of Eastern."

IN THE LETTER Genetski said there are many exceptional athletes on campus who do not play on varsity teams because the sports are not emphasized.

"The fact that these athletes are on campus is evidenced by the quality of players who participate in intramurals."

On behalf of the students,

Vocalist Spends Week On Road

Martha Van Hook, senior music major from Decatur, participated yesterday in the finals of the Opera Auditions of the Air in Chicago.

Held at radio station WGN, the contest is sponsored by the Illinois Opera Guild. Miss Van Hook competed for the guild's $1,000 Opera Award.

The results of the contest will be announced in the near future by the guild.

Today Miss Van Hook will be a featured soloist with the Kirkwood Symphony of Kirkwood, Mo. She will sing "Vio Lo Sapete" by Mascagni.

Finishing her week of appearances Friday, Miss Van Hook and her instructor, June Johnson, will fly to Tulsa, Okla., for the regional Metropolitan Opera contest.

Miss Van Hook won the district contest Feb. 1 in St. Louis. If she wins at Tulsa, she will receive $300 and a trip to New York for the semi-finals at the Metropolitan Opera.

Student Summer Work Increases

This year there will be a 10 per cent increase in summer jobs available to students and teachers over last year, according to Mynena Leith, editor of "Summer Employment Directory."

The greatest increase is found in summer camps, summer theatres and resorts in the New England and north central states.

A limited number of jobs is open at the New York World's Fair. Students who want to go to the fair can obtain a job in the eastern states within "days off" distance of New York.

The 1964 "Summer Employment Directory" lists 35,000 summer job opportunities with names and addresses of the employers, salary, a sample letter of application and personal data sheet to assist in making application.

Employers are listed at their request and they encourage applications from college students.

The 1964 "Summer Employment Directory" is available for student use at Booth Library or at the Dean of Men's office.

Jones, Plant Taxonomist, To Lecture At Eastern

G. Neville Jones, plant taxonomist of the University of Illinois, will speak to a joint meeting of the Botany Club and Zoology Seminar under the sponsorship of Beta Beta Beta, honorary biological fraternity.

The meeting is open to the public and will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 19, in Room 201 of the Life Science Building.

Bob Genetski

Genetski asked Doudna "to understand our views and initiate a program which would rectify the current situation."

THE LETTER states that Doudna has indicated his wish that all departments be treated equally and, in the case of the athletic department, that all teams be considered on an equal level.

According to Genetski in the letter, "While on the surface, this policy of proportionate equality would appear advisable, when confronted with realistic situations that we students are forced to endure as a result of such a policy, we believe it is far from desirable."

FIVE SUGGESTIONS were offered to Doudna for the betterment of Eastern's athletic system:

1. That an athletic department be established which is to be concerned solely with inter-school athletics.

It is also suggested in the letter that the head of this department (Continued on page 3)

To Comment With Vigor

TCB Policy . . .

The Eastern State News staff does not feel suppressed, censored, muzzled or muffled. We do feel that the Teacher College Board statement of policy concerning publications at Eastern, Northern Illinois University, Western Illinois University and Illinois State University at Normal was unwarranted and could pose a limitation to our "fullest freedom of expression" encouraged in the Board statement.

The TCB calls their statement a reaffirmation of "general policy." Why does it end by seeming to assign specific duties to the adviser?

According to the statement, "A competent faculty sponsor shall have the right to examine all copy presented for publication, including headlines, and be authorized to correct and edit copy to meet the standards of accuracy and good usage and, finally, he shall scan proofs of each page of type, and have the authority usually vested in the director of a privately-owned publication of general circulation."

It is this part of the statement we question. In our interpretation, the adviser is now, in effect, the editor if he desires to exercise his authority.

Any restrictions that an adviser, in his position as adviser, at one of the four universities, wants to impose on a publications staff is now justified—suppression, censorship.

If the adviser cannot trust the student he appoints editor to act as a responsible journalist, the adviser made a mistake in that appointment.

The Eastern State News is not at present censored. The Eastern State News could be censored. For this reason we object to the TCB ruling.

On Smoking . . .

A recent report of the Advisory Committee to the Surgeon General of the U.S. Public Health Service, entitled "Smoking and Health," states that "cigarette smoking is a health hazard of sufficient importance in the United States to warrant appropriate remedial action."

This report is an evaluation of all the pertinent data available regarding the relationship between smoking and health.

As in all scientific research, there are cases one may point to in which the smoking habits of an individual are not the cause of premature death; but on a statistical basis, these exceptions do not substantiate doubts concerning the dangers of the habit.

The report states that "in general, the greater the number of cigarettes smoked daily, the higher the death rate."

cent higher and for those who smoke 40 or more, it is 120 per cent higher.

The attitudes of people toward this report have varied from near-hysterical bans on smoking, to categorical contradiction of the factual content of the report and to indifference.

What concerns us are the college students who do not question the factual content or the conclusions of the report but who are indifferent to the meaning of the report to them personally.

College students represent a select segment of the population, which if not more intelligent, are at least more highly educated than the general population. Yet many of this select group are evidently indifferent to their personal health.

What is our attitude toward human values and what is our view of life? What can be more dangerous to a society than a feeling, by a considerable portion of its educated population, that they really don't care whether they live or die?

If a large segment of the population from which the leaders of our society are drawn are indifferent to their personal health, what effort will this have on their attitudes toward society in general? What will be their attitudes on such things as the probability of thermo-nuclear war and other major issues upon which our survival depends?

When T. S. Eliot commented on the end of the world by saying that it ends "not with a bang but with a whimper," he may have been wrong. . . . Perhaps it will be with a puff of smoke.

Teacher Ed. Council Gives Formal Okay To 'Studies' Major

A major in Latin American Studies for a B.S. in Education degree is now offered at Eastern. The major was recently approved by the Council on Teacher Education. This major will provide an automatic minor in Spanish.

Students with a Latin American Studies major will be required to complete two additional minors to meet the certification requirements.

The requirements for a Latin Studies major will be the same as those for a Bachelor of Arts degree.

This new major will allow students to prepare themselves for a career in Latin America as well as qualifying them to teach in any of several fields in Illinois schools, according to Donald Tingley, chairman of the division of Latin American Studies.

According to Tingley, "The Latin American Studies program is designed to give the student fluency in Spanish as well as a knowledge of the customs and life of the people of Latin America, so that he can work efficiently in Latin America."

The teacher training program is beneficial in that the student can also teach when he returns from Latin America.

Refutes Critic

To the Editor:

After an enjoyable evening watching the Players perform "Purlie Victorious," it seemed necessary to refute some of the criticisms which appeared in the critique published in the February 11, 1964, issue of the News.

This satirical performance did give one more than "a vast amount of good spirit" to take home, if one listened carefully. The play was filled with hidden truths which demanded a search below the surface of the puns.

"Acclamations" should go to the entire cast for their superb performances. Had one not laughed every minute, one would have had time to think during the seconds in between and to decipher the deeper meanings behind the jokes.

The News offices are housed in the south end of the Concrete Block Building. "Outside The Block" invites comment from our readers.

Letters addressed to "Outside The Block" should be typed, double-spaced and should not exceed 200 words in length. All letters must be signed, but the name of the writer will be withheld under certain circumstances, upon request.

Letters should also include the address and telephone number of the writer.

As for Leroy Blackful's performance, which was especially dynamic, dramatic and remarkably adept to his part, it was performed as written. He was not supposed to enjoy "the fun of which he was so much a part."

He was not part of the fun! His part was that of a non-Tom Negro who wanted to enlighten his people and to raise them above the squalid, depressed conditions to which they were beholden.

Some were spellbound as he delivered the six minute speech of a libertarian, but some laughed at the comments and actions of his fellow actors. The latter missed the point and the true character depicted by Leroy Blackful.

This was not an ordinary comedy; this was a satirical comedy.

According to Genetski, in the letter, "The students have already expressed their approval for giving a share of the student activity fees to the committee or agency which awards scholarships and grants-in-aids."

IN THE LETTER the Senate requested an investigation of the grants-in-aid fund resulting in actions to increase the reserves of the fund.

IT WAS ALSO suggested in the letter to Doudna that "in the event that the preceeding steps are taken and that the atmosphere of athletics here at Eastern is raised to a desirable level, then should our teams continue to be consistent losers, we would favor the reassignment of coaches who are directing such teams."

EIU Panthers Upset Leathernecks, 82-78

Jim Ficek, 34, missed this rebound for the Panthers but he grabbed 11 others and scored 26 points to lead Eastern to their upset victory over Western's Leathernecks Friday. Western's Mel Lacey, 45, lead the Leathernecks in scoring with 22 points and in rebounds with 20. Western's Donald Murphy watches the action.

Hoppin' Around Intramurals

By Tom Hoppin

Ron Wood, Sig Tau, captured the IM table tennis crown by defeating Iraj Samii, 2-1, Thursday in the University Union Ballroom. Wood, Samii and the Phi Sig's doubles team, which captured the IM doubles crown by defeating Hernandoes 2-0, will represent Eastern at Purdue.

Some of the News staff tried to cheer the Nads to victory Tuesday in the South Laboratory School Gym. But the "anything" became a reality as the Nads lost their fifth and final effort of the season to the Phi Sig's Class C squad.

The IM wrestlers put on a show for full houses both Tuesday and Thursday in Lantz Gym. IM Director John Hodapp staged 30 bouts in the preliminary action Tuesday night.

Thursday, Hodapp ran off 24 "show-down" tussles to decide the IM team champion and the individual IM weight champions.

Hernandoes' heavyweight, Vic Damen, was the most impressive grappler in the meet. He pinned Tony Sokel in 32 seconds to win his first match Thursday night, then came back an hour later and cinched the heavyweight crown by pinning Sig Tau's Leon Busboom in 1:09. Eastern wrestling Coach "Hop" Pinther commenting on Damen's performance said, "That is a good night's work."

OTHER CLASS WINNERS: Dave Davis, Hernandoes, won the 130 pound class by out pointing Dave Hofferkamp, Hernandoes, 13-4. At 145 pounds Dave Grant, Thomas Hall, out pointed Bill Hranka, TKE, 4-1 for first place. First place in the 160 pound class went to Bruce Herkert, TKE, after he squeezed past Tom Ferry, Sig Tau, 2-1;

Rudy Moser, Hernandoes, out pointed Jim Mann, Hernandoes, 11-3, for the 175 pound pound title. And Rick Alrich, Hernandoes, captured the 190 pound crown by out pointing Gill Jones, Sig Tau, 6-1.

Hernandoes' team captured the team championship with 50 entry points, 20 meet points and 50 place points for a total of 100 points. Sig Tau captured second place in the meet with a total of 60 points.

Intramural basketballers are in the play-offs now. Hernandoes, 5-0, will play the Sinners, 3-2, and the Vandals, 5-0, will take on Douglas Hall, 3-2, to decide the champion of the Class A independent division.

In Class B Douglas Hall 2nd Floor West, 5-1; Aces, 5-1; Grads, 5-1; Phi Sigs, 4-1; and the Raiders, 4-1; have firm holds on play-off berths. The Rangers, 3-1, and Whock, 2-2, will meet to decide who gets the other position.

Class C clubs in the play-offs are the Eagles, 6-0; Phi Sig, 5-0; C No. 69, 5-1; Rejects, 5-1; "C" Clubers, 5-1; Twisters, 4-1; Mafia, 4-1; and Thomas Hall Bombers, 4-1.

In Class D action the Fossils, 6-0, will play Hernandoes, 5-1, to decide the champ in that class.

Cagers Shake Up League Race; Ficek Captures Scoring Honors

Eastern's Panthers bounced back from a 78-77 lag Friday and scored their second upset victory in a row by defeating Western Illinois University 82-78.

With 3:01 remaining to be played in the Western-Eastern battle Friday night, EIU's Panthers watched a 75-74 lead turn into a 78-77 lag as Leathernecks Coleman Carrodine and George Mathis scored from the field.

The Panthers will travel to McKendree College Wednesday for their final road game. They will be trying to even their record at 11-11.

But Coach Bob Carey's Panther quintet proved they could handle a basketball as Jerry Grandone made good on two out of two foul shots and a drive for a 79-78 lead which the Western men couldn't overcome. Val Bush ended the game for the Panthers with a drive for the 81-78 and a free shot for the final 82-78.

Holding their biggest lead of the night, 35-25, in the first half, the Panthers saw Coach Stix Morley's Leathernecks clip six points from their lead to give Eastern a four-point margin at intermission.

However, when the buzzer sounded for the second half start, the Panthers were ready with Larry Miller and Jim Ficek hitting two fast ones for an eight-point, 49-41, jump on the Leathernecks.

With the upset, Coach Carey's men dropped defending IIAC champion Western presently into a three way tie for league honors this season. The Leathernecks now hold a 4-1 IIAC record as do new co-leaders for the race.

The defeat brought Western's overall to 11-9. Eastern raised its record to one rung short of even with a 10-11. The Panthers, having finished out their conference schedule, now have a 3-5 IIAC record identical to that of last year.

Big gun for the Panthers, in what Coach Carey described as the "best all-around team effort of the season," was Ficek, who scored 26 points for game honors. Ficek's 11 rebounds was second-high for the Panthers with Bob Rickett grabbing 14.

Rickett followed, however, in scoring, picking up 20 points for the evening. He hit for 17 the first half but could find the basket for only three points after the intermission.

Grandone was the third Panther to score in double figures as he hit for 11.

Other Panther scoring was Bush, 9; Miller, 7; Bill Geurin, 6; and Dick Holt, 3.

Both teams made 31 shots from the field, but the EIU five shot less for theirs, hitting at a .470 clip to their opponents' .403. At the backboards Eastern grabbed 47 rebounds to 42, but the WIU squad got one more team rebound.

Top player for the Leathernecks was Mel Lacey, who picked up 22 points and worked the backboards for 20 grabs. Top WIU man, usually, Carrodine ran third for his team hitting 18 while Hal McCullough got 20 points.

Regardless of all statistics but the final score, Coach Carey must be credited with the appropriate closing remark on the contest, "I'm only glad that we were ahead when the bell rang."

Art Steele, Eastern's broad jumper, took first place with a jump of 23 feet 9 inches. Ed Nilsen, Eastern pole vaulter, and Keith Watkins of Wheaton College tied for first in the pole vault at 14 feet.
